

Cox Family Fun Park

Stigler's skatepark has become very popular since it was opened last summer. The park is used by children and adults. The park was made possible by a generation donation from longtime residents Bill and Janie Cox.

